

LEYTON PUBLIC SCHOOLS
BOARD OF EDUCATION POLICY #4018

Corporal Punishment

Corporal punishment, defined as the infliction of bodily pain as a penalty for disapproved behavior, is prohibited. Some physical contact is inevitable, and most of it is appropriate. Therefore, physical contact, short of corporal punishment, is acceptable to promote personal interaction with students, to maintain order and control, and to protect persons and property.

Adopted on: December 8, 2008
Reviewed on: December 9, 2019
Reviewed on: April 11, 2022
Reviewed on: April 15, 2024